Firm Description

Established in 1911, Woolpert is a design, engineering, and geospatial firm that integrates services and applies technologies to benefit its federal, local/state, and private-sector clients. Woolpert provides seven core services: architecture, engineering, enterprise information management, geospatial, planning and design, surveying, and water management. We also deliver construction services through our subsidiary, Woolpert Construction Services, LLC. The company is consistently ranked among the top 100 design firms by Engineering News-Record, an industry publication.
